

9. Weather patterns and their continual changes will be on the forefront of the news. The world will say it is the effects of global warming, but these changes are revealing the signs of our times prophetically. Stay sharp!

10. A greater dependence upon the Lord is needed. Far too many believers have developed carnal thought-lives and habits of doing things their own way. Time is at hand to rekindle our first love and return to purity of relationship with Christ.

11. Persistent prayer is going to be the tipping point of provision. Don't become afraid of anything you are facing.

There is a greater dimension of overcoming power being released. Stay on your knees, victory will be yours!

12. Prepare to be stretched. But know that you will not be taken beyond your ability to accomplish what is set before you. Increase of graces and anointing will come at that point.

“Develop a Greater Passion”

13. The enemy uses guilt and self-condemnation as some of his most effective tools. Refuse to allow them to hinder your assignments. Learn to recognize his tactics when ministry opportunities come. Remember that his tactics never change.

14. Take seriously your God-given authority and take dominion until you possess what the kingdom of darkness has held back from you.

15. Ministers with a pioneer spirit will be led to open many new churches across America. The magnetic pull of anointed, uncompromised preaching of God's Word will affect many now attending 'user friendly' ministries and will draw them to where they can spiritually mature. This will cause growth in newer works, but also in already established local houses.

16. Live by faith, live a consecrated life dedicated to His purposes, and be obedient to His Word. You will never be sorry.

Add regular fasting to your devoted prayer times and you will find a fresh new flow of the Holy Ghost.

“On earth as it is in heaven.”
